

Feng Shui - The Ancient Art of Placement

Wealth & Prosperity

- Fountains
- Aquariums
- Waterfalls
- Flags
- Windsocks
- Wind Chimes
- Fish mobiles
- Expensive art
- Valuable collectibles

- Purple
- Red
- Gold
- Blue

Fame & Reputation

Fire Element

- Fireplaces
- Candles
- Trophies
- Awards
- Diplomas
- People
- Animals

- Red

Relationships Love & Marriage

Pairs of:

- Candles
- Heart
- Doves
- Photo of lovers
- Erotic art

- Pink
- Red
- White

Family

Wood Element

- Trees
- Photos of family
- Flowers
- Plants
- Heirlooms

- Green
- Blue

Health

Earth Element

- Sun
- Meditation area
- Massage/spa area

- Yellow
- Orange
- Brown
- Red

Children & Creativity

Metal Element

- Artwork by children
- Photos of children
- Whimsical art
- Bells
- Hands

- White
- Silver
- Pastels

Knowledge & Self-Cultivation

- Books
- Tapes
- Library
- Photos of wise people

- Blue
- Green
- Black

Career & Life Path

Water Element

- Water fountains
- Waterfalls
- Aquariums
- Work space
- Glass
- Mirrors
- Artwork of lakes, water

- Black
- Dark Blue
- Charcoal Gray

Helpful People & Travel

- Angels
- Spiritual altar
- Pictures of spirit guides
- Photos of where you want to travel

- Silver
- Black
- Gray

Main Door Entrance

FENG SHUI balances the flow of nature's rhythms (chi) in our homes, work places, and lives. Each detail may affect receiving positive or negative life energies: shape, position, spirit, color, smell, sound, flow. Stand in the doorway and survey your NINE LIFE AREAS. Note clutter, emptiness, blocks. Is chi flowing? First solution is to unblock doors, let in good energy. Second: stop runaway energy in halls and rooms. Open life areas for good "vibes" (chi).

CURES TO CREATE FLOW: crystals, bamboo flutes, ribbons, beads, mobiles, fountains, mirrors, chimes, color, symbolic suggestions.